“HOLIDAY”

PARADE MUSIC: Green Day
ARRANGER: Jay Dawson

Turn up the energy—this is “HOLIDAY” by Green Day. Arranged by Jay Dawson, this powerful rock anthem brings a wave of sound and excitement to the parade route. With bold brass, driving drums, and an unstoppable beat, the Cardinal Marching Band delivers a performance packed with attitude, spirit and fun. Get ready to clap along, feel the rhythm, and enjoy a high-energy musical ride you won’t forget!

EXHIBITION—FIELD

FIELD MUSIC ARRANGERS:
Ward Miller; Percussion by C. Sikkema & K. R. Boesiger; Pit by Josie Golla

FIELD SHOW DESIGNERS: Dan Carlson; Colorguard Choreograph by Marris Abts

Ascend is a powerful musical journey of elevation—rising from chaos and darkness toward clarity, strength, and light. The show begins in a fractured world with Chop Suey by System of a Down, where turmoil and unrest dominate. From this unrest, a spark of hope ignites through Like a Prayer by Madonna, as the soul begins reaching upward, drawn to something greater. In The Devil Went Down to Georgia, the ascent is challenged—a test of will and purpose against the pull of darkness. But through resilience and resolve, the spirit prevails, culminating in Ascension by Rob Romeyn—a soaring, radiant finale that celebrates not just escape from darkness, but the pursuit of something higher. Ascend is not merely about overcoming—it's about rising.
