CLASS AA—PARADE

“THE OUTCASTS”

Featuring Creep and Smells Like Teen Spirit

PARADE SHOW ARRANGER: Nick Baratta and Tom Wallace

Step into the world of The Outcasts, where the misfits, the outsiders, and the ones who never quite fit the mold find their voice. Set to the unmistakable sounds of 90s grunge, featuring Radiohead’s Creep and Nirvana’s Smells Like Teen Spirit, this street show captures the raw energy, rebellion, and individuality of a generation.

The Outcasts is a celebration of being different. What may make us feel like an outsider can also be what makes us unique. Through powerful music, gritty energy, and a little bit of attitude, the Tri-Valley Marching Mustangs remind us that there’s nothing wrong with standing apart from the crowd. Sometimes that’s exactly where you belong.
