2025 TRI-STATE BUTTON DESIGN WINNER KENZIE KROEH

The Tri-State Band Festival Committee congratulates and thanks LHS Junior KENZIE KROEH for her award winning 2025 TSBF BUTTON DESIGN.

As a sophomore during the 2024-2025 school year, Kenzie's design came effortlessly to her. Kenzie wanted something simple, but had really liked the idea of having a banner going through the button. Kenzie had said she wasn't sure how the design would go, and she did have to tweak it a little bit, but was very excited that her design was chosen.

Kenzie is the eldest of three children of Nathan Kroeh & Heather Frey family of Luverne, MN. She has a younger brother and younger sister.

Kenzie's true passions are hanging out with friends and enjoying her time at home. Kenzie is known to be a hardworking and dedicated person. Kenzie is looking forward to her Junior year at LHS and looks at forward to graduation next year.

The Tri-State Band Festival Committee was honored to award a $100 cash prize to Kenzie for her award winning design. The Committee thanks all the students in Chris Nowatzki's Art Class and Bill Thompson's Graphic Design Class at LHS for submitting designs for this annual competition!

CLASS A—PARADE “HANDCLAP”

"HandClap" is a song recorded by American indie pop band Fitz and the Tantrums. The song was released as the lead single from their album, Fitz and the Tantrums on March 25, 2016, through Elektra Records. It is their highest-charting song on the Billboard Hot 110, peaking at number 53. "HandClap" features an infectious beat, a funky bass line, and a memorable chorus that encourages listeners to clap their hands and sing along. Let the Adrian-Ellsworth Marching Dragons bring you to your feet to clap and tap!

FIELD SHOW DESIGNERS: Dan Carlson; Colorguard Choreograph by Marris Abts

Ascend is a powerful musical journey of elevation—rising from chaos and darkness toward clarity, strength, and light. The show begins in a fractured world with Chop Suey by System of a Down, where turmoil and unrest dominate. From this unrest, a spark of hope ignites through Like a Prayer by Madonna, as the soul begins reaching upward, drawn to something greater. In The Devil Went Down to Georgia, the ascent is challenged—a test of will and purpose against the pull of darkness. But through resilience and resolve, the spirit prevails, culminating in Ascension by Rob Romeyn—a soaring, radiant finale that celebrates not just escape from darkness, but the pursuit of something higher. Ascend is not merely about overcoming—it's about rising.

“THE WELL”

FIELD MUSIC ARRANGERS: Shane Gwaltney & Synced Up Designs
FIELD SHOW DESIGNERS: Shane Gwaltney & Synced Up Designs

The O’Gorman High School instrumental program is a comprehensive 9th through 12th grade band program, consisting of the marching band, 2 concert bands, pep band, 2 jazz bands, jazz combos, brass choir, musical theater pit orchestra, and a host of other musical activities. Band members performing tonight also serve as members of nearly every other activity and team sport offered at the high school.

The O’Gorman Marching Knights are proud to present their 2025 field show, THE WELL. From the very beginning, water has been a source of life—strength, when we are weary, hope when times are hard and renewal when we need a fresh start. Our journey begins from turbulence with the energy and movement of pushing us forward. We then turn to the source for solace, finding comfort and support in the face of challenges. Finally, the ever-ancient, ever-new source of life lifts us toward healing and new beginnings. We are sustained, restored and carried through every season of life. Always returning to THE WELL.

CLASS AA—FIELD “MIRROR, MIRROR”

Taking the field is the pride of Pipestone, Minnesota... the Pipestone Area Marching Arrows! This year’s program is titled... “Mirror, Mirror” — a bold and dramatic exploration of duality, reflection, and the fine line between beauty and darkness. Through music, motion, and visual storytelling, the Marching Arrows invite you to peer into the glass and ask: What do we see in our reflection... and what stares back?

Featuring the music of Britney Spears, Antonio Vivaldi, Metallica, Billie Eilish, and Tchaikovsky, “Mirror, Mirror” contrasts light and shadow, elegance and edge, order and chaos — transforming the field into a stage of swirling emotions and stunning visuals.

And now... as the mirror clears... prepare to witness the reflection.

“THE RACE”

(Based on Hebrews 12:1)

MUSIC ARRANGERS: John Moss & Mindee Birnstiehl

Welcome, race fans, to a day of thunder!

Our driver in race car No. 121 is comin' in hot today! He is sponsored by the Sioux Falls Lutheran Marching Eagles and ready to go, let me announce the line-up for our race today. The race will begin with cars following Route 66. They will also be passing along a “Desert Road” on this Highway called LIFE! Thank you to the Sioux Falls Lutheran Eagles who remind us from Hebrews 12:1 that we should “throw off sin and run the race set before us with perseverance.” Afterall, the winner today is not the driver with the fastest car, it's the one who refuses to lose! Thanks to the ladies in red who are our Pit Crew, and thank you to the trainer in blue coveralls, who has gotten us ready for this big race day! But may all the glory and praise go to our FATHER above who directs us down this path of “life” and may we feel his love and forgiveness through every obstacle or celebration along the way! So now...It's Lights Out and Away We GO!!!

2025 JUDGE: TAMARA SCHMIDT

COLORGUARD

Tamara Schmidt, formally Skroch, is originally from Rice, MN and attended Sauk Rapids High School. She graduated from St Cloud State University in 2004 with degrees in Operations Management, Marketing, and Human Relations. She currently works with her family at their company, Complete Grain Systems as the office manager.

Tamara marched in the 2001 and 2003 Boston Crusaders Drum Corps where she specialized as a rifle performer. She also participated in 1999 Minnesota Brass Drum Corps and Heritage Winter Guard in 2001, as well as her high school marching band and winter guard program early on.

Tamara has taught several teams, most notably, West Broward High School in Florida starting in 2010. Each year there, the top team was promoted by WGI into the next highest classification. West Broward was voted the Fan's Favorite several times and in 2013 earned the spot as the 4th place World Championship Team. In 2011, this team won the silver medal at World Championships as well. While there, she taught color guard in the classroom daily to this program of almost 100 guard students.

While living in MN, from 2000-2008, she directed and was paramount in building the St Cloud Eclipse Winter guard program which won numerous state championships and competed nationally as well. She was very active in consulting or choreographing other teams throughout the area. Most recently, Tamara was the director of Lux Independent as well as River City Rhythym's color guard, the Eastview Marching Band and co-director of Henry Sibley's color guard. She has also been elected to stand on the North Star Circuit board of directors for many years since 2002.

In the fall of 2016, she retired from all coaching commitments as she had her first child. She added her second to her family in 2018. Her husband, Ryan is also from the activity so her children as sure to find themselves connected in some manner over the years.

Tamara feels the best part of involvement in this activity is the impact that is made on the youth. She believes this activity is not just about flags, drums, band or winning, but rather life lessons that can be taught through hard work, dedication, accountability, and teamwork. She holds herself to a high standard of driving success through a positive work environment filled with information and learning.
