CLASS AA—FIELD

“THE JUNKYARD”

FIELD SHOW ARRANGER: Spencer Kruse

FIELD SHOW DESIGNER: Dan Carlson

The Oriole Pride Marching Band is proud to present their 2024 show, “The Junkyard”. Join us on a journey through an industrial scrapyard, where discarded metal and debris are re-purposed to build a motorcycle.

Starting with the quirky rhythms of “Melodious Thunk” by David Biendenbender, the show captures the chaotic energy of the junkyard. As the band transitions into the rock anthem, “Born to be Wild” by Steppenwolf, the motorcycle begins to take shape, symbolizing freedom and raw power. Original music by Spencer Kruse is woven throughout, driving the narrative and celebrating the transformation of junk into something extraordinary.

DRUM MAJORS: Miriam Welch & Noah Sayler

SOLOISTS:
Keira Tammen, Tenor Sax
Zander Hazuka, Snare
Lauren Anacker, Trombone

COLOR GUARD LEADER: Lexi Horst

PERCUSSION LEADERS: Zander Hazuka & Carter Dose

AWARDS & APPEARANCES

The Oriole Pride Marching Band has established a long tradition of excellence in the marching arts. In their 2023 season, the Oriole Pride Band placed third in the Gold Class at the Pursuit of Excellence, second in Class A at Tri-State, third in Class A at Big Sioux Review, third place in Class AA at the Festival of Bands, and first place in Class AA at the Dutchmen Field Championships.

Thank you for watching our performance and best of luck to all of the bands performing today. The Oriole Pride Marching Band would like to thank Al Osborn for letting us use his beautiful motorcycle and to all of the band parents who helped make this season a success.
